'LATE NIGHT CATECHISM' PRODUCED AT FALCON

"Late Night Catechism" is continuing in an open-ended run at 7:30 p.m. each Sunday at The Falcon Theatre in Burbank. It was written by Vicki Quade and Maripat Donovan. Directed by Marc Silvia, the interactive comedy features an irrepressible "Sister" teaching a class of "students" (the audience).

The Falcon is at 4252 Riverside Drive, Burbank. Tickets are $25. For reservations, call 955-8101.

A LITTLE JAZZ WITH DINNER

RESTAURANT OFFERS MUSIC FROM '20S, '30S, '40S

The Oceanview Bar and Grill offers live entertainment six nights a week for diners.

Entertainers perform a combination of piano and jazz guitar pieces, and some accompany with vocals. Musical selections include a mix of music from the 1920s, '30s and '40s to opera to Celine Dion. Some entertainers also perform their original pieces and invite diners to sing along with them.

Jennifer Russell and Michael Gayle sing jazz while playing piano and guitar from 7 to 10 tonight. Singing behind the piano the rest of the week are Bill Howe on Monday; Travis Warren, Tuesday; Mary Ekler, Wednesday; Alexandra Caselli, Thursday; and Bob Fetherolf, Friday.

The Oceanview Bar and Grill is at 3826 Ocean View Blvd., Montrose. For more information, call 248-2722.
